

“The Paragon
of Animals:
from Fish to Human Nature
in Man: A Course of Study” (MACOS)

No charge for admission.
Sponsored by the Departments of Biology and Liberal Studies and the Center for the History, Philosophy, and Sociology of Science, Technology and Medicine

A free public lecture featuring:
Dr. Erika Milam

University of Maryland College Park

<http://www.history.umd.edu/Faculty/Emilam/ELM/Home.html>

How and why did zoological and primatological research on animal behavior come to compete with anthropological studies of human cultures as sources of reliable information about human nature?

Thursday October 20, 2011

4:00pm University Hall 252